

Society for Assisted Cooperative Recovery from Eating Disorders

JOB POSTING

Position:	Consulting Dietician
Terms:	Independent Contractor Position, approximately 5-10 hours/week with periods of more hours required with notice
Location:	Edmonton
Compensation:	Competitive wages commensurate with experience
Closing & Start Date:	April 11, 2008; start end of April 2008

Job Description

This is an independent contractor's position. Work includes: meet with and assess participant nutritional status and develop and evaluate nutritional interventions; consult by phone with Medical Advisor and Program Staff on a weekly basis regarding participant health status and assess any resulting changes, special needs, dietary requirements; communicate changes to cook in a timely manner; periodic analysis of recipes to provide proper serving sizes; educational component presented to Program Staff and participants regarding eating healthfully; supporting participants in community re-integration.

Qualifications

Note

- All employees must submit a Criminal Records Check, within one week of employment start date in accordance with the Protection of Persons in Care Act

Educational Qualifications

- Degree in foods and nutrition from an institute that has been approved by the College of Dietitians of Alberta
- Completion of twelve month internship
- Status as a Registered Dietitian

Work Experience

- Experience working as an independent contractor
- Experience working successfully one-on-one with individuals with eating disorders regarding nutrition and education
- Experience working with vulnerable populations

To Apply:

Submit CV in confidence, including cover letter/references to:
Executive Director, SACRED
182, 10654-82 Avenue
Edmonton, AB T6E 2A7
admin@sacredeatingdisorders.com
780-903-3300

For a full job description, contact Executive Director as per above.

Learn about us: www.sacredeatingdisorders.com