

Employment Opportunity

Location: University of Alberta Hospital

Competition # SS-24628-UA

Closing Date: April 27, 2006

Opening Date: April 17, 2006

Position: 04424-Community Liaison Coordinator (Class. under review)

RFT - Regular Full Time FTE: 1.00

of openings: 1

Salary Range: In accordance with management/exempt pay structure

Department: Stollery Pediatric Centre for Weight and Health

Hours of Work: Monday to Friday. Days.

Position Available: Immediately

The Community Liaison Coordinator works in collaboration with the team within the Pediatric Centre for Weight and Health (PCWH) and external agencies to identify new opportunities and/or to assist external agencies to address service gaps; facilitates professional development and coordinates orientation of new community-based programs.

Duties:

- Develops and recommends community-based pediatric weight management strategies, programs, tools and delivery options.
- Contributes to the quality assurance of programs through involvement in professional development, development of clinical standards and guidelines, setting clinical standards, coaching and program evaluation.
- Identifies and supports opportunities for integration of services within PCWH and with external partners.
- Established and maintains a network of community contacts to facilitate knowledge exchange and transfer with relevant internal (to Capital Health) and external stakeholders in regards to healthy lifestyle behaviours and pediatric weight management
- Provides leadership in specific program areas by developing practice standards and guidelines, providing education, acting as a role model and facilitating staff/PCWH development.

Qualifications:

Baccalaureate Degree in related discipline required. Masters Degree in related content area preferred. Evidence of ongoing professional development. Minimum of three year's relevant experience required. Experience in a planning, coordination and leadership role preferred. Experience within Capital Health would be an asset. Experience in pediatrics and/or knowledge of pediatric weight management would be an asset. Valid Alberta Driver's License-Class V. Current CPR-Basic level. Current registrations with appropriate Provincial/National Professional Association as required by legislation. Knowledgeable about the health system, community agencies and strategies to access community resources.

When Applying:

Applications should be submitted by 2400 hours on the closing date, quoting the Competition Number to Human

Employment Opportunity

Resources, CSB1-161, University of Alberta Hospital Site, 8440 - 112 Street, Edmonton, AB T6G 2B7, or Fax: (780) 407-3084.

Please note that only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted. Our online application and additional opportunities are available @ www.capitalhealth.ca. We thank-you in advance for applying with Capital Health. Applicants may be required to pass a skills assessment test. All employees new to Capital Health must provide a criminal records check. Capital Health supports a smoke-free environment.